

German Language Course Visa (§ 16f AufenthG)

If you intend to attend a language course (min. 18 hrs per week for longer than 90 days) with a concrete career motivation, e. g. your employer sends you or explicitly recommends the language course for your further career development and gives reasons, you are required to obtain a residence permit in the form of a visa. An application out of personal interest with no evidence of previous efforts to learn German is generally not likely to be successful.

General Information

- The application can be submitted at the earliest 6 months before the planned entry.
- The standard processing time can take up to 3 months.
- Documents that are not issued in German or English must be submitted together with a translation.
- The Consulate General reserves the right to request further documentation.
